

The Thanksgiving Turkey has come this year,
To bring our neighborhood grateful cheer.

It seems we are so busy we can only say hi,
And before we know it the year has gone by.

We feel so blessed that you are our friend,
And hope our friendship will never end.

Now that you know we love living near you,
Share this Turkey with a neighbor friend too!

What you do now:

Make a copy of both the poem page and the Turkey. If you want to print new pages rather than make copies, the originals can be found @ <http://overthebigmoon.com/>

Hang the turkey in your window, so people will know the Thanksgiving Turkey has been to your house.

Make a treat and deliver it with the copies you have made. Don't forget to run and hide and keep it a secret!

Happy
Thanksgiving!

From your friendly neighborhood
